4. Diversity Initiatives – The Community Tour on Tuesday, January 13th hosted by Dr. Joe'l Lewis received very positive and humbling feedback from the Diversity Council and other College of Education Faculty. The committee will be meeting very soon on the next step, possibly a second tour.
5. Webpage Development – Ongoing with a couple of items needed to complete before the College of Education goes live.
6. Maymester Incentive Program – Chairs were encouraged to ask their faculty to begin thinking about developing courses for MayMester for May 2016. University policy limits faculty to one course per MayMester, but Dean Hayes said, consideration may be given for 7 week courses – MayMester through the first summer term, thereby allowing for two courses.
7. Commencement – Update: there will be two sessions one in the morning, 9:30am and one in the afternoon, 2:00 pm. Faculty will now march in and be seated on the floor level with graduates. Parking is recommended in the COE parking lot, with Jag Tran running between the Mitchell Center and College of Education Dean Hayes is requesting that all COE graduates park in the COE parking lot. There will be a reception immediately following the morning session.

8. Summer Contracts – Preliminary Summer Contracts are due in Academic Affairs on

12. EPP Annual Report in AIMS – The 2015 EPP Annual report is now LIVE in AIMS! These reports are due by April 17, 2015 at 11:59:59 pm Eastern.
13. Appointment of Lead Marshall – Dr. Andrea Kent is currently giving up this position and Dr. John Kovaleski will assume the duty of leading the students in at commencement.
14. Professional Development Grants Program – Hand out given – The Research Elaboration Grants (RAG) program is intended to support faculty members with a record of external funding to engage in activities that promise to advance their research and scholarly activities and securing additional external funding. Dean Hayes has revised the present COE grant program, encouraging faculty to explore and submit more grants.
15. eForms – All current College of Education eForms need to be accessible on the University Website – A-Z eForm Index database.
16. Graduate Student Teaching Skill Certification – The ILL now offers a course for GTAs to improve their teaching at USA. Although optional, all graduate assistants and adjuncts are encouraged to participate at no cost.
17. Payment Process Limits ($2,500) – Effective immediately, only Direct Pays, Requisitions, Payments to Individual for Services, or Transfer Requests in excess of $2,500 will require approval by the Office of Academic Affairs. Pre-approved travel does not require approval by the Office of Academic Affairs. However, all PAF's, Job Descriptions; APS forms etc. – will still require Provost/SRVPAA approval.

Meeting adjourned at 12:10 pm.
